Beau's name couldn't be any more perfect for him. This sweet and handsome chocolate beagle just melts your heart—especially when he covers you with kisses. If you look into Beau's hazel eyes, you'll understand why Happy Paws agreed to take him in when his owner could no longer keep him.

Beau is in need of a special someone to show him the good life. You see, Beau is a bit of a nervous Nellie—and who can blame him after his world was turned upside down? Beau would do best with an adopter who can give him a consistent, predictable routine. We believe Beau will thrive with love, patience, and time to adjust in his forever home.

Are you the buddy that Beau is looking for? Adoption fee will be waived for a qualified home. (All of our usual adoption policies apply.) Please download an adoption application at happypawsrescue.org.
